

Marine Fisheries

Fish Dealer License

What Activities Require This Permit? The license authorizes a North Carolina resident entity (individual or business) within North Carolina to buy fish for resale from any person who holds a valid commercial fishing license. Fishermen who sell their own harvested catch to the public are required to have a Fish Dealer License. The dealer can only deal in each category designated on the license, example: finfish, crab, etc.

What Is The Purpose of This Permit? To license and identify individuals and businesses purchasing fish or shellfish from licensed fishermen. Licensed Fish Dealers are required to report all transactions on trip tickets and supply these to the Division of Marine Fisheries (DMF) on a monthly basis.

Who Issues This Permit? NC Division of Marine Fisheries, License and Statistics Section.
